A TOUR TO THE FAR WEST.

GEORGE E. H. DAY,

Attorney & Counsellor at Law & Solicitor in Chancery, and Practitioner in the United States Dist. Court,

Would respectfully inform the public that, at the request of a number of Business men, (and for the purpose of viewing the country,) he expects to make a tour through Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsan, Iowa and Missouri, for the purpose of securing and collecting debts; examining Records of Deeds; investigating titles to Real Estate; Redeeming Lands sold for Taxes, and purchasing Lands, &c. &c. He expects to travel in his own conveyance, and will attend personally to business when practicable---when not, will select and appoint persons of responsibility, and who are well qualified to transact business. He will keep a Journal or Record of all business transactions, and other matters desired; as well as a description and observations upon the soil, climate, healthiness of the different portions of the country; the prices of farming lands, village and city lots---population of villages, towns and cities---the number of persons employed and engaged in the different arts, trades and professions, amount of capital employed in the mechanical, mercantile and manufacturing establishments in the towns and cities, as well as the character of their inhabitants. Any information upon the above subjects, which is accessible, will be furnished and communicated from any point on the rout by mail, if desired, for a reasonable compensation, which must accompany the request, unless some previous arrangement shall have been made. Mr. Day will probably start by the 20th September next, previously to which, all communications addressed to him at his office, Painesville, Lake Co., Ohio, will be attended to; or after that for two months at Milwaukie, Wisconsin.
